- 3 new California editions

THE VOLUNTEERS' GUIDE TO FUNDRAISING

Parents of children who belong to music groups or sports teams, PTA presidents, staff in small libraries and other nonprofessional fundraisers will learn how to mobilize their volunteers, legally raise and handle money, and plan fundraising strategies. This comprehensive and accessible guide was written by llona Bray, author of Nolo's bestselling Effective Fundraising for Nonprofits.

PLUS, find 18 new national and California editions, in nearly every category of the law, updated to reflect the latest legal changes.

SPECIAL FOCUS

In these times of economic anxiety, American consumers need to make certain that their credit scores are accurate and up to date. Credit Repair is a how-to guide for anyone who wants to clean up a credit report, maintain or improve a credit score, pay down debt and build good credit for the future. And the 10th edition has been completely reorganized! New chapters provide more information on how bankruptcy and foreclosure affect credit and how to reduce mortgage debt through the new government loan modification and refinancing programs.

FIND IT ON NETGALLEY!

Excerpts from

The Volunteers' Guide to Fundraising

10 | CHAPTER 2: GETTING VOLUNTEERS EAGER AND READY

Meet Your Advisor

Sandra Pfau Englund, attorney and founder of Pfau Englund Nonprofit Law, PC, which provides legal services to nonprofit organizations; and founder of Parent Booster USA, which provides tools, tips, and immediate tax-exempt status to school support groups (parent-teacher organizations and sports, music, and other booster clubs).

What she does: "I talk to people daily about how to start new nonprofit groups, and how organizations like school booster clubs can operate legally from the start

Earliest memory of taking part in a charitable or fundraising activity: "Putting change into the church offering plate is probably my first memory of helping raise money. My Mom and Dad gave me the change, so I wasn't really putting much thought into it then. But I think that I do what I do now because my parents volunteered a lot. While I was in law school, it all clicked: I realized that I could combine my interest in volunteer-based organizations with the legal profession."

Likes best about her work: "Working with people who really care about what they're doing. Many of them, I identify with—like a parent with kids who's trying to raise money for their baseball team, lacrosse team, or something else. In other cases, I may not have a burning passion for the particular cause, but the person who calls me does, and I can believe in that. It's satisfying to feel, at the end of the day, that I've made someone's life easier. People already have enough to deal with just getting the groceries and making dinner! So if I can take some of the load off, perhaps by helping them get their group's tax exempt status or answering a question about a Form 990, I'm happy."

Top tip for people new to nonprofit fundraising:

"I have two tips: (1) Make sure you are allowed by law to hold certain events, like raffles and auctions; and (2) Make sure you are insured to cover accidents and losses related to the event." THE VOLUNTEERS' GUIDE TO FUNDRAISING

CHAPTER 3: STRATEGY | 16

TO BETTER UNDERSTAND how to strategize based on existing assets, consider the following list of potential assets that a small, volunteer-led group might have. Its assets vary from the standard to the wacky, yet each one is valuable in its own way when it comes to fundraising.

Fundraising Assets and Uses

IF YOUR GROUP HAS:	YOU MIGHT USE IT TO:
A built-in membership, such as schoolchildren and their parents, or church members.	Solicit individual donations, and ask members for names of other people who might also be approached for donations; create internal competitions to raise money (for example, among school homerooms), recruit volunteers and participants for fundraising events.
An extensive mailing list.	Ditto the above. Mailing lists are every organization's treasure—guard and update it carefully, and add names of interested people whenever you can.
A pulpit or other forum for a religious leader	Ask the leader to, for example, thank the committee that is raising funds for the new roof and remind everyone that they still need donations.
A committed corps of fundraising volunteers, with strong leadership and interpersonal skills	The sky's the limit—but think first about having these folks maximize your outreach efforts to individual donors, including building long-term relationships with people capable of making large donations, and making personal, targeted asks to those donors. Don't forget to ask the volunteers to donate, too! Volunteers are also crucial for planning and staffing events.
Numerous members with common interests.	Plan events around a theme, such as a group trip to a Shakespeare play to support a school theatre group, or an authors' night to support the library.
Access to numerous members of the public (such as a street with lots of passersby)	Sell passersby goods (such as at a garage sale or bake sale where interest in your mission isn't key to interest in buying).
Location in a walkable area where people are mostly willing to open their doors.	Door-to-door solicitations for donations or sales of goods.
Office space and a personal phone line available to fundraising staff or volunteers.	Make calls to individual and business donors, including think-yous, progress updates, and actual requests for donations. A librarian, for example, can do this in between other work projects.
A front desk or area where members pass or congregate.	Put out a donation jar, flyers explaining projects that need funding, a barrel to collect used books or goods, and special appeals like a Christmas tree covered with slips of paper containing your organization's wished-for donations.

Aim to sign up at least double the number of volunteers you think you'll need.

No-shows are inevitable, both at initial meetings and in later follow through. Adds Margo Palmer, an experienced PTA mom, "You can expect that 20% of the people will do 80% of the work."

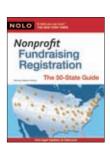

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

Ilona Bray is an author and legal editor at Nolo specializing in nonprofit fundraising, real estate, and immigration law. She is the author of numerous books, including Effective Fundraising for Nonprofits and Becoming a U.S. Citizen. Bray

Raise Money for Your School, Team, Library or Community Group

by Ilona Bray, J.D.

Over one quarter of Americans volunteers with nonprofits. And one of the most crucial services they can provide is to raise money.

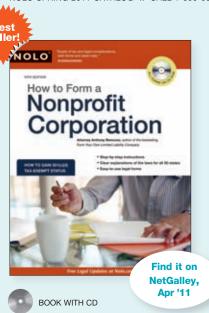

The Volunteers' Guide to Fundraising is a comprehensive but accessible guide to raising money for a group, cause or workplace, written for both volunteers and staff who aren't necessarily professional fundraisers. Containing insights and stories from a team of nonprofit experts, including event planners, dedicated school parents, accountants, lawyers, and group leaders, the book explains both the practical and the fun, creative aspects of fundraising.

PTA presidents, parents of children who belong to music groups or sports teams, staff in small libraries and others will learn how to mobilize their volunteers, legally raise and handle money (and avoid trouble with the IRS), plan their fundraising strategies and promote their events and activites. Specifically, they'll get step-by-step advice on how to raise money through:

- special events, such as fairs, festivals, walkathons and auctions
- raffles and sales of products
- member donations
- benefit concerts, lectures and shows
- sponsorships and donations from businesses
- dinners and other food events
- grant opportunities for small groups

The contents of the CD-ROM alone will save readers hours of valuable time, providing handy forms and sample letters for everything from collecting walkathon pledges to asking businesses for in-kind donations.

Incorporate Your Business

A Legal Guide to Forming a Corporation in Your State

by Attorney Anthony Mancuso :: 6th edition

Choosing the right legal structure for a business is one of the most important decisions every small business owner will make. Incorporate Your Business helps small business owners make that decision by explaining the advantages, disadvantages and tax consequences of incorporation, and showing how a corporation compares with the LLC, partnership and sole proprietorship.

Business owners who are certain that incorporation is right for them will learn how to form a corporation in any state. With the book's step-by-step guidance they'll be able to:

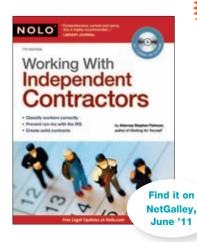

- choose a corporate name
- prepare and file articles of incorporation
- prepare bylaws

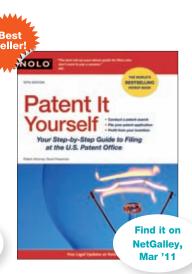

- · appoint initial corporate directors
- prepare minutes of the first board meeting
- issue shares of stock

The CD provides all needed forms, including bylaws, minutes, bills of sale and promissory notes.

The 6th edition is updated to cover recent changes in the law, including state, federal, and tax law changes.

Working with Independent Contractors

by Stephen Fishman, J.D. :: 7th edition

30% of the workforce is comprised of independent contractors or temporary workers. However, the laws surrounding independent contractors aren't always followed, leading to stiff IRS penalties and expensive lawsuits for employers.

Working With Independent Contractors helps businesses of all sizes, including the self-employed and HR staff or managers of larger organizations, hire and work with independent contractors legally. It explains how to:

- classify a worker as an independent contractor
- create a valid contract
- protect intellectual property
- comply with state labor and antidiscrimination laws
- draft and sign agreements
- · avoid legal trouble

The CD provides dozens of useful forms and agreements, including independent contractor agreements, terms of payment and a title of agreement.

The 7th edition is updated to reflect changes in IRS and Department of Labor rules and regulations.

Patent it Yourself

Your Step-by-Step Guide to Filing at the U.S. Patent Office

by Attorney David Pressman :: 15th edition

Over 450,000 utility patents were filed at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) in 2009, and filings continue to rise despite economic conditions. But with many patent attorneys now charging as much as $700 an hour for their time, most small inventors find themselves effectively priced out.

Patent it Yourself helps scientists, business people, engineers and basement tinkerers protect their inventions—at a fraction of the cost of a hired lawyer. Written by renowned patent attorney David Pressman, the book walks inventors through the entire process of obtaining a patent. It provides details on:

- conducting a patent search
- evaluating the commercial worth of an idea
- · acquiring foreign rights
- · protecting secrets
- enforcing and maintaining a patent
- · licensing invention rights

The 15th edition is updated to include information about the 2010 Supreme Court ruling that continues protection for business method and software patents. The new edition also reflects recent changes in patent-filing procedures.

Legal Guide for Starting &

Legal Guide for Starting & Running a Small Business

by Attorney Fred S. Steingold :: 12th edition

Small business owners regularly face a range of legal questions. Ignoring them can lead to trouble, but hiring a lawyer to help with routine issues can devastate the bottom line.

Legal Guide for Starting & Running a Small Business provides plain-English information on all of the common legal issues related to starting a business—and keeping it going. It explains how to:

- choose the right business structure
- raise start-up funds
- · obtain licenses and permits
- create binding contracts
- · hire, fire and manage employees
- protect personal assets

Readers also get a handy checklist that helps guide them through key tasks, such as finding the right business location and setting up tax reporting and accounting.

The 12th edition is updated to cover recent changes in the law, and provides information on additional tax reporting requirements and new tax credits for small businesses under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, the 2010 federal health care overhaul law.

IRAs, 401(k)s & Other Retirement Plans

Taking Your Money Out

by Twila Slesnick, PhD & Attorney John C. Suttle :: 10th edition

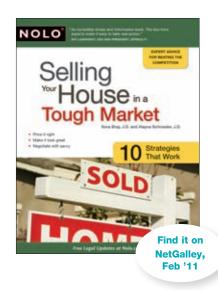

Roughly 29% of the U.S. population is approaching retirement. They—and anyone retiring early, changing jobs, looking to borrow money from a retirement plan, or wondering what to do with an inherited plan—will want to avoid the stiff taxes and penalties that lurk in the fine print.

IRAs, 401(k)s & Other Retirement Plans discusses the common types of retirement plans, including 401(k)s, profit-sharing plans, Keoghs, IRAs and tax-deferred annuities, and explains the rules that govern distributions from each plan. Readers learn about all of their options so they can make the best choices when taking their money out. They'll find out how to:

- adopt tax strategies before and after retirement
- · convert from one plan to another
- take required distributions
- minimize taxes
- avoid penalties for taking money out early
- determine and handle distributions to beneficiaries

The 10th edition is updated with the latest tax rates, tables and method for calculating distributions.

How to Form a Nonprofit Corporation in California

by Attorney Anthony Mancuso :: 14th edition

How to Form a Nonprofit Corporation in California provides educators, environmental groups, social service agencies, art groups and others everything they need to obtain 501(c) (3) tax-exempt status in the golden state. This comprehensive and easy-to-use guide takes readers step by step through the nonprofit incorporation process, explaining how to:

- · choose a name and file articles of incorporation
- take advantage of tax benefits
- qualify for public charity status
- · create legal bylaws
- prepare minutes of a first meeting
- prepare a federal 501(c)(3) tax exemption application

The CD provides all required forms, including articles for a public benefit corporation, bylaws and bill of sale for assets.

The 14th edition is revised to cover the latest laws and forms, including bylaws that allow for electronic transmission of meetings and notices. The book also covers new online services and options related to forming a nonprofit corporation.

Fight Your Ticket & Win in California

by Attorney David Brown 14th edition

Confusing traffic signs; improper use of a radar gun; an insignificant violation of an obscure rule; or maybe the officer simply got it wrong. Whatever the charge, an uncontested ticket can still mean a steep fine and higher insurance rates.

Fight Your Ticket in California provides proven techniques for challenging nearly every type of traffic violation in court, including reckless driving, moving violations, driving with a suspended license, defective equipment and driving under the influence. California motorists learn how to:

- prepare and present evidence
- argue before a judge
- cross-examine a police officer's testimony
- handle a misdemeanor charge
- get a case dismissed
- appeal a conviction

The appendix provides a number of useful blank forms, including a Request for New Trial (Trail de Novo) and a Notice of Appeal (Infraction).

The 14th edition is updated to incorporate changes in California law, enforcement policies, and fines.

LIBRARY & ACADEMIC ACCOUNT INFORMATION

LIBRARY ORDERING POLICIES

Discounts:

- Standing Order Library Discounts:30%

Returns:

You may return any Nolo book within six months of a library's invoice date, as long as the book is unmarked, unprocessed and in saleable condition. Include a copy of the invoice with the return. Claims for missing or damaged books must be made within 45 days of invoice date. Credits are issued upon receipt of books.

Shipping:

We ship and bill orders via USPS Library Mail. (UPS shipping available upon request and will be billed at current UPS rates.) Estimate freight at $3 for the first book, and 30¢ for each additional book, or four (4)% of total order if ordering five (5) or more titles. We strive to ship all orders within 48 hours. This applies to books shipped within the continental U.S. only.

Returned check fee:

A $25 fee will be charged on any check returned to us by your bank. If you fail to pay the amount of the returned check, in addition to the returned check fee, within 10 days a hold will be placed on future purchases and you will be responsible for all costs of collection including any necessary legal action.

To Order:

To place your order, email librarycs@nolo.com, or call or fax us. For more information, visit www.nolo.com/library/.

ACADEMIC ORDERS

Exam / Desk Copies:

Instructors, ordering review or desk copies for your courses is easy.

- The first 5 examination copies are free! ($8 per title, prepaid, thereafter.)
- Maximum exam quantity: 5 books per class, 1 copy per title.

To Order:

- Please visit www.nolo.com/academic/, print and complete the order form and fax or email it to us.
- Students ordering textbooks should call Nolo's Direct Customer Service line at 1-800-728-3555.
- All orders are subject to stock availability at the time they are processed. Please note that Nolo does not supply any supplemental teacher's aids.

Questions:

For questions about the above, contact Trade Customer Service at tradecs@nolo.com.

MATCHING FUNDS PROGRAM

Nolo supports our libraries! If you have a patron or Friends of the Library organization that wants to donate to your Nolo book order, Nolo will match every dollar donated up to $1500. For more information, visit www.nolo.com/library/matching-funds.html.

ONLINE LEGAL UPDATES

Nolo posts updates to the latest versions of books and software when major legal changes occur. Visit www.nolo.com/legal-encyclopedia/ and search for updates by A to Z product listing or by legal topic.

STANDING ORDER PLAN FOR LIBRARY ACCOUNTS

Here's how to stay current and receive a 30% discount

Nolo's standard library discount is 20%. Did you know that library accounts can receive 30% off all orders by participating in one or more Standing Order Plans (SOP)? Not only will your library receive a significant discount, but you'll keep your collection current with the latest legal and small business books.

By placing at least one title on a Standing Order Plan, you will receive a 30% discount on all your Nolo book orders!

OPTIONS (Please note that you can participate in more than one plan.)

1. Regular SOP

We will send your library new editions of books you select as they are published. Mark your selections on the order form with an "S" (for Standing Order only), OR "R" (regular order), OR "B" (for both), and your desired quantity. Example: S1 for 1 unit on standing order. B2 for 2 units on standing order AND place a separate order for 2 units to ship now.

2. New California Titles

Your library will receive the first edition of ALL new California-specific books as they are published. (If you want to continue a title, please contact us.)

3. New National Titles

With this plan, your library will receive the first edition of ALL new national books as they are published. (If you want to continue a title, please contact us.)

4. Deluxe SOP

Your library will receive ALL national books and new editions as they are published.

OR, CREATE YOUR OWN PLAN!

Visit www.nolo.com/library/ for full details about our plans. If you don't find a plan that meets your needs, we can help you develop one that works for you. Please call us for more information.

How to Get Started:

To initiate your standing order plan, order subsequent editions of Nolo's new titles, or to add them to an SOP, contact our Customer Service department by phone, fax, or email.

BOOK REPLACEMENT / NOLO'S BONUS BOOKS

Book Replacement Plan for Libraries:

Nolo's Stolen Book Replacement program is being redesigned to represent what it really is: a Thank You to librarians for purchasing books directly from us.

The details:

- New name: Nolo's Bonus Books
- Notifications will come by e-mail only
- Simplified qualification chart
- Simplified book selection: Two lists of available books will be offered; one set will be offered January through May and a second June through December
- All orders will be submitted through Edelweiss at http://edelweiss.abovethetreeline.com/browse/nolo

What should you do now to prepare? Make sure your library has an email address associated with its Nolo account. If you order direct from Nolo you will receive a postcard in the mail at the beginning of December with a reminder and more details. You can also check www.nolo.com/library/replacement-policy.html.
